5th Grade Takes on the KING!!

5th grade is learning about the causes of the Revolutionary War. They have been a colony on Mars for the entire year. Recently, they have encountered some troubles that the king (Mr. Haggett) had to deal with. Consequently, he imposed taxes on the colonies to make up for lost time, which equals money. The colonists (students) had issues with these unfair taxes, over which they had no say. They organized several peaceful protests and finally held their own "Boston Tea Party" like protest by posting their complaints in his office. The colony remains part of the greater RCMA country, following an agreement that restored order.
